L'Armoire to Host Special Show of Works by Jewelry Designer Adria de Haume

New Canaan, CT (December 2, 2010) On Saturday, December 11 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., L'Armoire at 102 Park Street will host a special show of the work of fine jewelry designer and sculptor Adria de Haume. L'Armoire will present a selection of pieces by the designer made from sterling silver, gold, platinum, diamonds, and colorful precious and semi-precious stones.

“Adria de Haume is an extraordinary artist who is deeply concerned with humanitarian issues which she demonstrates by her generous support and sponsorships for philanthropic efforts worldwide,” said storeowner Diane Roth. “Adria donates substantial portions of her profits to worthy causes each year. She has designed jewelry for a number of organizations including a line of equestrian-themed pieces to benefit the Equine Angels Rescue Sanctuary. A selection of these pieces will be here on the 11th.”

Ms. de Haume's namesake company, established in 2000, has achieved critical acclaim and boasts commissions for heads of state and many other celebrities and VIPs. Her jewelry designs are works of art, inspired by nature, the properties of light and artifacts of ancient cultures. Her creations have been exhibited in major museums in the US and abroad. Valued for their exquisite beauty, superb craftsmanship and timeless appeal, many who collect her pieces find they also contain a spiritual essence.

More than 100 organizations have benefited from her commitment to charity, from the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation to the Breast Cancer Research Foundation to the Revlon Foundation and animal and environmental protection groups, and that list keeps growing.
